Composition

Size. The size of the Committee will be determined by the Board, subject to any requirements or limitations in the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, but will consist of no fewer than three members, subject to applicable phase-in rules. In the event of the resignation or removal of a Committee member, the Committee may from time to time operate with fewer than three members if such composition is allowed under the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws and all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Qualifications. Each Committee member will meet the independence criteria of the listing requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”), subject to the exemptions provided by the Nasdaq rules, any other requirements imposed by the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and any other applicable legal requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing and if the Committee is comprised of at least three members, one member of the Board who (a) does not meet the independence criteria of the listing requirements of Nasdaq for membership on the Committee and (b) is not a current officer or employee of the Company or a family member of an officer or employee of the Company, may be appointed to the Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that such member’s membership on the Committee is required in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and the Board discloses, in the Company’s next annual proxy statement, the nature of the relationship of such member with the Company and the reasons for the determination of the Board, provided that such member may not serve longer than two years on the Committee. Desirable qualifications for Committee members include, but are not limited to, experience in corporate governance, business management, personnel or human resources management, and organizational behavior.

Notwithstanding the foregoing qualifications, all actions taken by the duly appointed members of the Committee in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company shall be the valid actions of the Committee.

Selection. The Board selects Committee members, including to fill member vacancies following the resignation and removal of a Committee member, based on recommendations of the Committee. The Committee Chair will be selected as set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Resignation and Removal. Each Committee member will serve at the pleasure of the Board for such term as the Board may decide or until such Committee member is no longer a Board member. A Committee member may resign from the Committee upon written notice to the Board. Resignation from the Committee does not automatically resign the member from the Board.

A majority of the Committee members will constitute a quorum for conducting business at a meeting of the Committee. The Committee Chair will supervise the conduct of the meetings and will have other responsibilities which the Committee may designate from time to time.

The Committee will meet periodically in executive session without Company management present. However, the Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, or any representative of the Company's legal counsel or other advisors, to attend a meeting or to meet with any members or representatives of the Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Chief Executive Officer may not be present while the Committee is evaluating or discussing the Chief Executive Officer's performance. Any Committee member may be excused from a meeting to permit the remaining members of the Committee to act on any matter in which such member's participation is not appropriate, and such member's absence will not destroy the quorum for the meeting. The Committee may act by unanimous written consent.

Delegation

The Committee may, in its discretion, delegate all or a portion of its duties and responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.

Resources and Authority

The Committee will have appropriate resources and authority to discharge its responsibilities and carry out its duties as required by law, including, without limitation, appropriate funding in such amount as the Committee deems necessary, to compensate any consultants or any other advisors, including independent counsel retained by the Committee.
